

Distillery Experience Manager – Premium Spirits Brand

THE COMPANY:

The Republic of Fremantle Distilling Co is a new Australian premium spirit's brand with a strong sense of community alongside an ambitious global mentality. An outstanding distillery producing world class spirits with its innovative grape to glass ethos. A company which celebrates its uniqueness, alongside exceptional quality and attention to detail.

THE ROLE:

We are searching for a passionate and driven individual to lead the “Distillery Experience” team. The experiences offered here at the Distillery are a crucial part of the offering of the venue. Our unique still and distilling process enables us to give consumers a unique insight into how to make Spirits from scratch, in a fun and interactive space. These experiences will broadly take the form of masterclasses, tours and tastings. There will also be an events element within this role. Such events may include but will not be limited to coordinating off-site tastings and/or masterclasses, and operating pop-up and event bars.

THE CANDIDATE:

This role would be suited to someone who enjoys connecting with people and has a passion for craft beverages. Perfect for a university student or graduate, or someone looking to help shape and grow into a role in an innovative new business. The person who accepts this role will be a confident public speaker, an educator, someone who has some experience or interest in scientific process, an interest in distillation and alcohol production more generally, and an interest in cocktails and bar culture. Experience in any or, all of these areas, is preferred but not necessary.

RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

- Ensuring seamless delivery of distillery experiences
- Helping build and develop the distillery experiences
- Finding creative ways to develop and communicate the brand ethos
- Showcasing the products and brand at industry and consumer events
- Assisting the sales and marketing team

JOB OFFER

- A full-time salary position is available for the right candidate
- Reporting to Head of Hospitality
- Based in Fremantle, Western Australia

Please email expressions of interest to bar@rofdistillery.com.